As human beings, we are multi-dimensional with a body, mind, soul and spirit. To know ourselves, we need to have a map that guides us and a framework upon which to build an Inner Self. This healing intensive presents an interdisciplinary approach to the exploration of the Self, resourcing both Chinese medical theories and modern metaphysical teachings, and supports one's personal development through self-reflection and the power of biofeedback with The L.I.F.E. System.

This 6-week online intensive includes:

- Lectures on a variety of topics, including The Spiritual Alignment (a framework for keeping oneself centered, grounded and present), Energetic Boundaries, the Chakra System, the Inner Child, Shamanic Journeying and the Shadow.
- Comprehensive programs for self-exploration and understanding that may also be offered to clients in one's own professional practice
- Guided meditations and exercises to enhance one's personal experiences
- A Power Point presentation and Zoom recording for each weekly session
- Deepening practices that include additional programs for home sessions and study
